

Statement by Mr J Evans and Ms A Spear

To whom it may concern

We have looked over the plans of Mr and Mrs Jeffreys for the adjoining dwelling to ours and we fully support this planning application as in our existing extension we find the roof space adds minimal space gain and is impractical for our growing family. We are also looking at ways to create extra space and would be likely look to replicate this in the future.

Kind regards,